Who attends?

Revo Liverpool 2017 is the UK's largest single gathering of people and businesses that together create, deliver, operate and occupy great places for work, rest and play.

More senior decision makers and more retailers attend this event than any other in our sector, including more than 750 senior Directors / Partners and 25 Chairmen / CEOs in 2016.

Our inclusive group of attendees come from - commercial & residential investment and development; in & out of town leasing and investment agents; UK & international retailers, F&B and leisure operators; construction & infrastructure companies; Local Authorities & other public sector bodies; innovation experts and trend spotters; and many many more....

Last year's programme was widely regarded as one of the best yet, and this year we're going to make it even better. Once again expect government ministers, council leaders, CEOs and other leading thinkers from within and outside our industry - and up to 12 hours CPD available!

How much?

In response to customer feedback, and in recognition of the changing and challenging market we have reinvented Revo 2017, with a new format and the lowest ever attendee prices.

Cost are 40% down on last year's ticket prices.

- Tickets are just £495 for members and £550 for non-members
- Additional exhibitor and sponsor tickets only £300
- £99 for under 30s
- £175 for public sector representatives
- Retailers attend for free! And a special international retailer programme available.

Competitively priced and accessible to our whole community.

Being outside London brings wider opportunities.

Our launch party on the evening of Tuesday 19 September mirrors our dynamic and evolving community. Set in a cool, new and vibrant space it will bring together around 600 attendees to kick-start the networking in earnest. No charge for this event, it's included within the ticket price!

Learn.

Tackling the biggest trends disrupting and redefining retail and placemaking, we're going to examine, debate and be inspired by leading influencers from our own, and wider industries, both from the UK and internationally. Against an overall theme of 'connected places', just a few of this year's key talking points...

- Stormy waters; the near and mid-term outlook for the UK economy and our political system
 - Big Five. Key trends disrupting retail
 - How people are changing the retail landscape. Age is but a number in a customer journey.
 - Who would invest in UK retail property right now?
 - Placemaking and building emotional connection. Good for you. Good for business.
 - People and goods on the move; the importance of transport and infrastructure in connecting people and place
 - Inspiring hospitality and leisure. The challengers and their relevance to future retail
 - Changing markets. Changing formats. The repositioning of retail places.

Every penny of every pound we generate is reinvested back into our community.

This means the revenues we generate from our commercial activities, such as events like this, enable us to create products and services that support individuals, companies and the wider sector – for example education and training, research, lobbying, achieving policy change, raising industry standards and improving understanding of our market. Making a real difference to our entire community.
